

Banned Goods

Unfortunately, like any organisation there are some rules regarding what we are allowed to sell and what we are not. Please see below an extensive list of items that unfortunately we cannot take in at our charity shops.

This is due to us not being able to guarantee their safety or they may fall in the category of items that are related to activities opposed by the RSPCA.

Animal Related Goods	Children's Goods	Miscellaneous Goods
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fur items of any kind • Stuffed animals, birds or fish, framed butterflies, shells, seahorses, sea urchins. • Items depicting hunting, bull fighting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • children's cots, mattresses, beds, child care safety seats of any kind including car seat, motor cycle helmets, riding hats, cycle helmets, child safety harnesses, prams, pushchairs, playpens, • Children's toys cannot be accepted or sold without a CE mark. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gas or paraffin heaters • Lighters, matches, fireworks • Bikes, skateboards and skates • Opened make up or nail varnish • No sharps – includes all knives/ornamental • Work tools including saws, chisels and hammers • We cannot accept/sell real or realistic imitation firearms • No used pet goods – cat collars, fish tanks and/or small animal cages. • Alcohol • Used Candles • Pirate or copied CDs or DVDs • Counterfeit items

Please note: We cannot dispose of old duvets due to the waste disposal costs to the charity, and are therefore unable to accept them as donations, these should be accepted at your local tip.